FOOD SOURCING

All food products sourced by The Address Connolly are from certified Feile Bia approved suppliers. The Address Connolly is fully compliant with current H.A.C.C.P guidelines.

GREEN HOSPITALITY

The Address Connolly are committed to an ideal where we can deliver on comfort, luxury and making memories in a way that is sustainable for our planet. We are proud to be a certified silver member of green hospitality.

Sustainable Hospitality

The Address Collective care about and are working toward sustainable hospitality, we understand the great challenges facing our planet and we are committed to playing our part to make the world a better place for future generations.

We are delighted to announce that as of January 2022 the Hotel has been awarded Silver Accreditation through Green Hospitality Ireland which reflects significant improvements that have been made through our Environmental Management System.

We focus our efforts on three key pillars which form our guiding principles in decision making as we advance our efforts.

People:

People are the very fabric of our business they are the teams who manage and operate our hotels, they are the guests who sleep in our bedrooms, they are the delegates who convene in our meeting rooms, they are the diners and they are the many suppliers, agencies and institutions we work with and of course they are also our neighbours. As a business we are very conscious of all of these people and work toward ensuring that their experience with our business is an exceptionally positive one whether it be through the guest experience, an employee relationship or a delivery man on his rounds. We also invite our guests to take part in our efforts by giving them the information and tools they need to minimise their carbon footprint through energy consumption, water consumption and waste separation. We want to make the world a better place for these people through any interactions they have with our business.

Community:

The very cornerstone of our brand is that we celebrate the communities within which we operate, the four lines of our brand set are an aesthetic representation of the Hotels postal Address. This represents each hotel's individuality which is born out of its environment. We build local experiences and touches into the guest experience which celebrate the hotel's locality. We endeavour to be a good neighbour and that our impact on the communities we operate is a positive one. We activate this through supporting local food and beverage suppliers by limiting the geographical area where we source our food. We use only local suppliers for all of our furnishings, fittings and contemporary design pieces in the Hotels. We work with local artists to showcase their work and provide opportunities for them to provide art classes to our guests and delegates so they can engage with and support local talent. We work with community groups through our CSR program to both fund and more importantly understand the social challenges that exist in our locality. The nature of our business supports indigenous employment and provides career opportunities for people in the community. We want to make the world a better place for our communities by sustainably leveraging its many resources rather than unsustainably drawing them from it.

In 2023 The Address Collective are proud supporters of the following charitable and community groups that work toward the betterment of the communities they work with:

- Focus Ireland
- Barnardo's
- Penny Dinners Cork
- The DCU Access Programme
- Crusaders Athletics
- Laura Lynn Foundation
- Planet:

We understand the urgency in addressing climate change and the need to stabilise and ultimately reduce the level of carbon emission being pumped into the atmosphere every minute of every day. We measure and manage across three key areas or energy consumption, water consumption and waste generation.

Energy: We invest in the latest technologies in heating and ventilation to ensure that the energy that powers our climate control and water heating uses minimum levels of kilowatt hours to do so. We also ensure that our electricity is drawn from 100% renewable sources which dramatically reduces our carbon emissions. We source our food and other raw materials within a limited geographical area to ensure it is local and arrives with minimal carbon footprint. We ensure our lighting is provided by the low energy rated bulbs that use minimal kilowatts to operate and have a long life. We ongoingly retrofit our buildings to increase their efficiency ratings through insulation and heat retaining windows.

Water: We invest in technologies that reduce our water consumption in our guest showers and WC through reducing the litres of water required but maintaining the level of pressure required. We harvest rainwater to supply water to our vegetation including our own home-grown herbs and we are actively looking at new ways to conserve water working with suppliers to find innovative ways to reduce the draw on main waters, such as using harvested rainwater to feed the beers cooling system.

Waste: The choices we make around suppliers and raw materials form a large part of how waste can be reduced in our hotels. We look ensure there is minimal packaging, particularly plastic packaging and minimal by-product that will end up in landfill. We have removed single use plastics from our guest bedrooms, introduced biodegradable drinking straws and compostable coffee cups. We also ensure the glass we use in our operations is recyclable and that it finds its way back to the recycling system.

We monitor our food waste closely to inform purchasing and menu engineering decisions and toward a goal of eliminating all food waste from food preparation while minimising food waste from consumed meals.

We invite our guests to join us in these efforts by giving them the information and ability to separate their waste in their bedrooms enabling our housekeeping staff to recycle the majority of waste in guest bedrooms and divert from landfill waste.

The Address Collective reserves the right to modify this policy at any time. Changes to the policy will be updated in this page and will always aim to be progressive in their nature.

Sauna, salt room and hydrotherapy pool

Infrared sauna

An infrared sauna is a type of sauna that uses infrared lamps to warm your body directly. The warmth of the infrared lamps penetrates your body more deeply than a traditional sauna.

Benefits of an infrared Sauna:

- Better sleep
- Relaxation
- Detoxification
- Weight loss
- Relief from sore muscles
- Relief from joint pain such as arthritis
- Clear and tighter skin
- Improved circulation

Heated salt therapy room

Salt Therapy is a completely natural, non-invasive, and drug-free treatment where dry salt aerosol is passively inhaled in a specialty constructed salt room. Salt rooms provide a plethora of healing properties to address a variety of conditions, from respiratory issues to skin conditions, in a relaxing environment.

Benefits of salt therapy:

- Increased energy
- Reduce stress and headaches.
- Strengthen the immune system.
- Lessen the need for inhalers and antibiotics.
- Improve lung function.
- Increase the prevention of respiratory tract diseases.
- Improve general health and quality of life.
- Relieve irritations and inflammation of the skin.
- Improve sport performance for athletes.
- hydrotherapy pool
- The warmth of the water allows your muscles to relax and eases the pain in your joints, helping you to exercise. The water supports your weight, which helps to relieve pain and increase the range of movement in your joints. The water can be used to provide resistance to moving your joints.
